THIRTY ON JULY TRAIL RIDE

It WAS a beautiful morning July 15 when 30 MHA members joined on a trail ride. Groups from Mountain Riding Club, Green Barn, Leona and the Crossroads met punctually at Sunset Trail and after a brisk ride lunched at the arena. Lillian Tatum toted the stove and coffee pots, and John Owen acted as chef. It was the best Sunday ride yet.

Those who attended were: Burl and Lillian Tatum, Onalee and Janet Phillips, John and Dell Owen, Gus and Elsa Himmelman, Ralph and Alicia Coffey, George and Helen Daniels, Edith Roberts, Jay and Jo-Ann Baker, Marge and Scoop Rowe, Nina Stern, Dan Ralston, Larry Domina, Mabel Wallace, Genevieve Beals, Clyde Smith, Mary Larsen, Lou Schaackey, Nancy Hill, Judy White, Laverne Gabrielson, George Keffer, Bill Barnard, A. B. Graham.

TRI-CITY HORSE SHOW IS BIG SUCCESS

The Fourth Annual Horse Show of the Tri-Cities Horseman's Association, held on July 4, at Horsemen's Park, brought out a big crowd and a large entry list. Especially noted was an entry of 108 juniors.

The Aahmes Shrine Rangers with their beautiful pinto horses and colorful uniforms gave an outstanding exhibition. The American River Riders of Sacramento, a sensational group of junior riders made a spectacular ring appearance with their speed and precision drill maneuvers.

M. H. A. member winners included: Barbara Sweazea, First in children's English equitation, under 12; First in novice class, English, Sue Sweazea; second, Carla Nelle; fifth, Willa Clausen; Children's English horsemanship, second, Sue Sweazea; third, Carla Nelle; fifth, Jackie Wedel.

The Eden Horsemen won best mounted group in the Grand Entry; Jack Simons and Frank Kelly won first in Pair Class; Dave Jones and Bob Coats, fourth; Joe Young and Hank Zaban, fifth. Kay Pacheco won first in English Pleasure class; Frank Kelly won fifth in Parade class.

CONCORD - MT. DIABLO TRAIL RIDE

General Chairman Bob Mattson of Concord announces that the Concord-Mt. Diablo Trail Ride, mammoth street parade and horse show, will be held on September 1, 2, 3.

This year's ride will be a double feature on the stiff trails leading to Barbecue Terrace on the sides of Mt. Diablo, inasmuch as a Tenderfoot Ride has been added to the gruelling championship. The Tenderfoot Ride will be shorter and over a modified course, using part of the championship trails, and will be for an entirely new entry of those who do not want to attack the two-day full mountain course.

Starting Saturday, the Trail Riders from Concord and the Tenderfoot group, probably from a point near Clayton, will head for a rendezvous at Barbecue Terrace, camp overnight, enjoy a barbecue and breakfast and arrive back in Concord Sunday afternoon, September 2, for the judging of their horses.

Sunday and Monday the horse show occupies the beautiful grounds on Pacheco Road at the edge of Concord, while on Labor Day one of the largest street parades in the history of Contra Costa County will be staged as will be the finals of the horse show and the awarding of Trail Ride and Tenderfoot trophies.

TO THE C. S. H. A.

"Dr. Roger Daniels, President
California State Horsemen's Ass'n.,
1220 - 25th Street,
Sacramento, Calif.

Dear Dr. Daniels:

At a meeting in the 5th Region called by Mr. George Walling for the purpose of discussing regional eliminations, two matters were brought up for discussion which directly affect the drill teams in State competition. The Alameda County Sheriff's Posse was represented, as was our own drill team, and the Metropolitan Horsemen's Association Juniors, as well as some others who may possibly be competing.

It was unanimously agreed that all of these organizations were opposed, and violently so, to the idea of having a judge appointed by each participating drill team. Each organization present felt that such a procedure would be entirely unsatisfactory to them. We wish that you would take this into consideration in arranging for judging of the drill teams.

The other matter discussed, about which there was no unanimous action taken since the Sheriff's Posse representative had left before the matter came up, concerns the showing of the drill teams at the convention. Those present felt that it would not be feasible, and would be a great hardship, to have all of the drill teams show in competition on the same night.

... Please give these matters your consideration and bring them up where they should be discussed.

Yours for a successful convention,
AAHMES SHRINE MOUNTED PATROL
David C. Jones, President."

* * * *

In explanation let us say that the idea of having each drill team supply judges, and that of having all drill teams compete on the same night, did NOT originate in this area. We are sorry that our state president is forced to consider such ideas. Thanks, Dave Jones, for letting us reprint this letter. (Editor).

CALIFORNIA STATE FAIR, SACRAMENTO, JULY 11.—The greatest display of horse flesh on the Pacific Coast will be presented in the brilliant horse show of the California State Fair where eleven thrill-packed performances will be staged from August 30 through September 9.

Under the supervision of Ed Paine, known for precision and smooth organization, the show will surpass any ever offered in State Fair history. More than 450 equine aristocrats will perform.

Tevis Paine, suave and distinguished master of ceremonies, will again officiate as director and announcer of the events. Harold Collison, incomparable hornblower, will blare the notes on his coach horn to introduce the colorful array of show classes. Setting the tempo for each event, Aletha Bowman, organist, will delight her ardent enthusiasts with appropriate music as a background for the annual equine exhibition.

In the eleven evening and eight afternoon performances, horsemen, and horsewomen will be competing for more than $35,000 offered in cash premiums to winners in the 17 classes. There will be eleven $500 stakes and nine $1,000 stakes during the eleven days of the fair. The $500 stakes are offered in the Five-gaited, Three-gaited, Hackney Harness, Hunter, Working Hunter, Polo Mount, and Trail Horse classes; $1,000 stakes in Five-gaited, Fine Harness, Three-gaited, Hackney Harness, Harness Show Ponies, Roadster, Hunter, Jumper, and Stock Horse classes.

For the first time there will be a class for Green Hunters. The class is open to horses that have not shown at recognized shows prior to January 1, 1951, except as three-year-olds.

Adding color and action to the show, special riding groups will delight the spectators with intricate and skillful maneuvering in the arena. The Turlock Cavaliers, Alameda County Mounted Sheriff's Posse, Sonoma County Cavaliers, and American River Riders will present their riders and mounts in spectacular executions of riding skill.

Fair officials are hopeful of having Norma Matthews, Mrs. Al Lauer, participate in the show. Known as the "anchor pair" in the Olympic Equestrian team, Norma and her great Jumper, Country Boy, have won the acclaim of thousands throughout the nation.

Hunters, Working Hunters, and Trail Horses will perform every afternoon, except the opening day and Sundays, in the infield of the race track over a new and beautified course.

Judges for this year's show are some of the best in the nation. J. Miller McAfee, Lawrenceburg, Kentucky, will judge saddle horses, light harness horses, and heavy harness ponies; Colonel Alex Sysin, Pasadena, will judge Hunters, Jumpers, and Polo Mounts; Richard L. Deller, Galt, Stock Horses and Western Classes; Colonel F. W. Koester, Fullerton, Draft Horses.

Two memorial trophies, the Charles W. Paine and T. H. Ramsey perpetual trophies, will be awarded again this year. Last year, Mr. and Mrs. Garth Ottney, Yuba City, won the Paine Trophy, and W. M. Howard, Pleasant Grove, won the Ramsey Trophy.
